

IN THE HEART OF THE SIX-MILLION-ACRE FORESTED WILDERNESS OF THE ADIRONDACKS

Lake Placid Lodge seems as if it was specifically designed with couples in mind. That's because the sprawling and private retreat hand-built in the Arts and Crafts Great Camp tradition with gorgeous Adirondack design naturally fuels romance. Here, cell phones are an afterthought, there is just a single TV on property, and the "bird-nest" beds custom-built by a local artisan and fireplaces in every room practically demand lazy mornings together. All these details also mean that the property is the ultimate wedding venue paradise, where almost anything is possible. Think "I dos" said before the 4,800-foot Whiteface Mountain in the distance. Or a private husband-and-wife toast post-ceremony aboard the lodge's 36-foot mahogany Hacker-Craft. Or a welcome reception that brings your most beloved friends and family together for an evening on the lake's edge for lawn games, s'mores, and socializing.

A Sample Wedding Weekend

THURSDAY

Check into Whiteface Suite

You'll never see another bridal suite as impressive as this. Expect massive timber beams and a lofted ceiling, an enormous king-sized bed wrapped in hand carvings and vines, a stone fireplace and claw-foot tub, and — best of all — a private balcony equipped with a queensize daybed set on a swing and a million-dollar view of the lake. Lounge for as long as you like, then spend the rest of the evening exploring the property, home to wood-burning fireplaces tucked in every corner, a restaurant that earned the property its Relais & Châteaux title, and dreamy Adirondack-inspired decor.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON INTO EVENING

Rehearsal & Welcome Reception

After running through a practice of your ceremony, your wedding party will retreat to an intimate dinner served in either The Wine Cellar, The Baby Bootlegger Room, or The Baby Bootlegger Porch. During this same time, your welcome reception will begin, where all your other guests will arrive, and, at their leisure, head to the lakeside lawn, where they will be treated to a barbeque with live chef attendants, lawn games, a bonfire, and more, until you and your wedding party make their grand appearance.

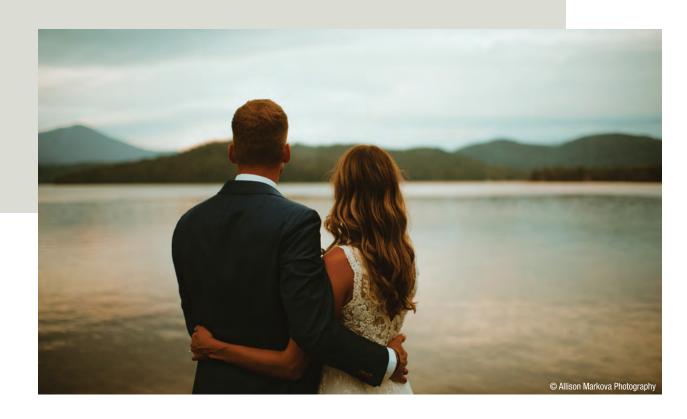

Girls Get Ready, Guys Go Golf

While the ladies are getting hair and makeup done in Whiteface Suite, your event planner will keep the room stocked with pastries and mimosas in the morning, then tea sandwiches and crudités around lunchtime. As for the groomsmen, they're welcome to spend the morning golfing (there is a course just next door to the lodge), kayaking, even taking a mountain-biking expedition set up by the lodge. When it's time for the boys to don their suits, wherever that might be on the property, the event planner will make sure it comes with a bucket of beer and whiskey for a good luck toast.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

First Look, Ceremony & Cocktail Hour

With so many gorgeous intimate spots around the property – including a rustic lean-to cabin down by the dock and the staircase in the Main Lodge lined with a collection of Hudson River School paintings – your "first look" photos will be a thing of pure beauty. But, of course, nothing tops the actual ceremony itself, held on the scenic lawn at the water's edge beneath a gorgeous vine-covered arch with the lake and mountains in the background. Once the ceremony concludes, guests are passed custom his-and-her cocktails and head straight into your cocktail hour at your choice of venue: The Dock, Maggie's Pub, Adirondack Terrace, or The Baby Bootlegger Porch.

SATURDAY EVENING INTO NIGHT

Reception & After Party at Maggie's Pub

After dinner under the tented Adirondack Terrace, guests move indoors to the attached Enchanted Forest Room to dance the evening away on the dance floor, surrounded by rustic decor that includes tree saplings and paintings that originally served as the backdrop for A Midsummer Night's Dream on Broadway. And for those still in the spirit when the reception ends, Maggie's Pub can be opened after-hours for drinks and mingling.

SUNDAY MORNING

Farewell Brunch

Held on the covered patio known as Artisan's Runway, this elegant buffet includes all the traditional breakfast staples, as well as a mimosa and bloody mary bar. The newlyweds will sit at a central head table, allowing guests to mingle around them and say their goodbyes. If guests have to depart early, a "grab-and-go" option is also available, featuring wrapped breakfast sandwiches, granola, yogurt, and more.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON & ON

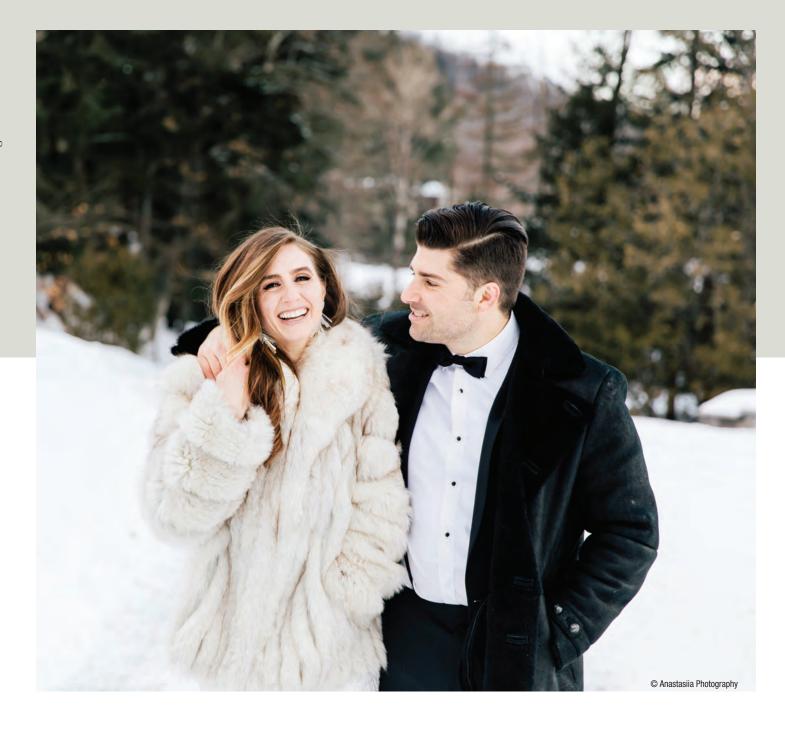

Stay a While

While the majority of guests may leave, many newly married couples opt to stay a few extra days at the property. Yes, to wind down from the wedding weekend itself, but also to enjoy all there is to do in the area, including exploring the Olympic village of Lake Placid and the myriad outdoor recreational options in the surrounding Adirondacks.

Winter Weddings

SINCE LAKE PLACID was the site for not one, but two Winter Olympics (once in 1932 and again in 1980), this location comes even more alive during what is considered an off-season for most venues. With its rich holiday-themed decorations, Lake Placid Lodge is no exception, where weddings transform into winter wonderlands.

Other Ways to Say "I Do"

Elopements & Intimate Weddings

Thanks to the secluded setting on the shore of Lake Placid and award-winning service, Lake Placid Lodge offers an idyllic backdrop for intimate weddings, vow renewals, and intimate elopements. Ask about our special elopement packages to take the stress out of planning your special day that is truly just about the two of you.

A Lodge of Your Own

When you book the entire Lake Placid Lodge property for your wedding weekend, the doors close to the public and all 30 rooms and public spaces become the personal playground to your closest friends and family. The possibilities are endless as the team is here to serve your group – and only your group. Ask about the special amenities and activities we can plan for you.

Artisan's Runway

Resembling a runway on the enclosed patio next to the lodge's intimate farm-to-table restaurant, this woodlined venue is anchored by a massive stone fireplace. Able to be heated to a comfortable 70 degrees, it is perfect for a winter wedding, but can also be used as a backup ceremony site in the event of inclement weather during the summer.

Accommodates 75 seated guests

The Dock

Jutting into Lake Placid, The Dock is a unique location to exchange vows, especially with the leisurely lapping of water beneath your feet.

Accommodates 30 seated guests

Maggie's Terrace

Set on the bottom floor on the lodge, this partially covered, slate-stone terrace invites expansive views of the lawn, lake, and Whiteface Mountain in the distance.

Accommodates 40 seated guests

The Moose Room

Ideal for an intimate indoor winter ceremony, the Moose Room offers an elegant, quiet intimacy complete with a wood-burning fireplace.

Accommodates 40 seated guests

Firecove

This romantic little spot – which feels a bit like a stone grotto nestled next to the Adirondack Terrace – is ideal for elopements and the most intimate of ceremonies.
